Music was provided by Bruce Hayes, opening by Jeff Heaton, Shavano Blue Trio, the Lisa Morales Band, HoneyHouse, Cash'd Out, and Mo'Champipple & the Meso Horns. Production assistance was provided by Snob Productions, Park Avenue Rentals, and High Octane Enterprises (Eric Grossman). Special thanks to emcee Phillip Virden. Thanks to Darin Thorn of Republic National Distributing and the San Luis Valley Brewing Company (Mike and Mary Young). Once again, we had beautiful, hand-painted wine glasses from Julie Reel. Thanks, Chuck Chetwin, for coordinating vendors (Kip's Grill, Haugen's Mountain Grown Lamb, Climb Elevated Eatery, Mountain Valley Kettle Corn, Smokin' Johnny's BBQ, Autumn Tenyl Designs, Alpen Glow Essentials, Clay Memory, Dream Wild Studio, Festive Fascinators, Glassy Girls, From the High Country, HJ's Hats of Crested Butte, Jeansonne's Fine Designs, Lady Unique Boutique, Rocky Mountain Antler Art, Laurel's Pearls, Pets & Pine Candle Co., Pete Emerson Silversmith, Peppermills of Distinction, Pinon Wood Fibers Ranch, Queen Beads, Rocky Mountain Outback Hats, Shot & Hunt, and the Jewelry Smith. Thanks to our accommodations Alpine Village, The Texan, Gowdy Properties, and G&M Cabins.

Cheers to Diane Bruce and Tom Hamel for overseeing a smooth Wine Tent operation and Greg Collins for the Beer Booth. Green room space provided by Lake City Arts (thank you!) and coordinated by Peggy Bales (thanks to all the donors of amazing food!). Ruthanna Hall and Elaine Gray oversaw the ticket booth and thanks to Lynn McNitt for the products booth. Thank you to Noah Krouse and volunteers for providing security, to Britt McLaughlin and Emergency Medical Services for on-site medical assistance, and to the Hinsdale County Sheriff's Office for law enforcement. Thanks to Ben Hake for clean facilities, park setup, and a Safe Ride home! Thank you, Mike Young, for a new Safe Ride sign at a moment's notice. Special thanks to Hinsdale County for the new crowd control barriers for our community.

A huge thank you to our 175 community volunteers who make this day possible Mark your calendars & tell your friends – September 19, 2020.

Respectfully,
Kristine Borchers
